INTERNSHIP INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION International Criminal Court (ICC) Programme

Quest: The IBA is currently seeking highly-motivated, highly-qualified individuals as interns for the Hague office. The internship provides a unique opportunity to gain experience in the evolving field of international criminal justice

Main Function: Assist the IBA Hague programme lawyers to implement the ICC Programme

Location: The Hague, the Netherlands

Duration: Four (4) to six (6) months

Three intakes per year	Deadline for application
1 January – 30 April	15 November
1 May – 30 August	15 March
1 September – 30 December	15 July

Main responsibilities:

- Extensive research and writing
- Collection of material for IBA reports
- Analysis of evolving ICC jurisprudence and policy developments
- Preparation of briefing notes for meetings, presentations and events
- Assist with updating the programme pages on the IBA website
- Assist with organising internal database of research material
- Assist with routine office administration as required

Skills and experience

- Advanced studies in international criminal, humanitarian and/or human rights law
- Excellent research, writing and analysis skills
- Strong interpersonal oral and written communication skills
- Familiarity with computer based research
- Fluency in French, an asset
- Experience organising workshops and or seminars, an advantage
- Prior intern experience at the ICC, ICTY or other international organisation an advantage

*The position is not remunerated

Application Process

To apply please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, writing sample of not more than 2 pages, and a completed application form available at http://tinyurl.com/intern-programme (please save application form to your computer in order to complete it) to IBA Programme Manager at hague.internprogramme@int-bar.org. Kindly indicate IBA Internship as the subject of your e-mail.