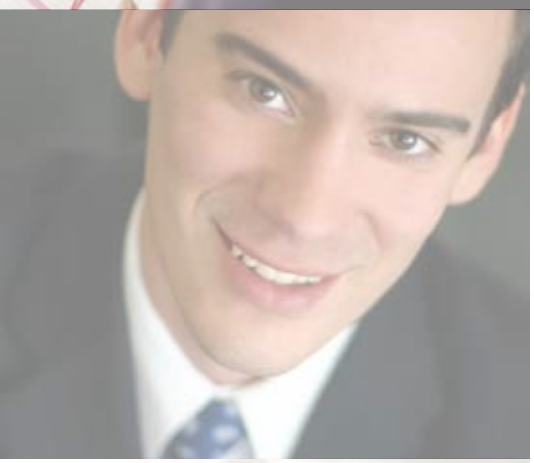
The IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee 2011 Annual Pro Bono Award

Sponsored by

LexisNexis®



This year during the International Bar Association (IBA) 2011 Annual Conference, to be held 30 October – 4 November in Dubai, the IBA's Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee will honour a lawyer who has shown an outstanding commitment to pro bono work as part of their legal career.

In its role as a dual membership organisation, comprising 30,000 individual lawyers and more than 195 bar associations and law societies, the IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession. Its Member Organisations cover all continents and include the American Bar Association, the German Federal Bar, the Japan Federation of Bar Associations, the Law Society of Zimbabwe and the Mexican Bar Association.

The IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee fosters world wide recognition of the principle that access to justice is the right of all individuals and promotes access to justice for all, regardless of their financial means, race, age, ethnicity, gender, or popularity of cause. Pro bono work is a cornerstone of the legal profession, and the IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee wants to help build a culture of pro bono work by lawyers, law-firms and organisations of lawyers, as a vehicle for access to justice where that right is not fully supported by legal aid.

The IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee invites nominations for its prestigious Pro Bono Award of lawyers who are leading our profession in building a pro bono culture. To nominate an outstanding lawyer, please complete and submit this form to Charlotte Evans at the IBA London office.

The IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee are delighted to announce that LexisNexis are sponsoring this award, which will include:

- free registration to attend the IBA Annual Conference in Dubai, UAE, 30 October – 4 November 2011;
- a contribution of up to US$5,000 towards accommodation and travel costs to attend the conference; and
- one year's free membership of the IBA, PPID and the Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee.

All applications received by Friday 1 July 2011 will be submitted to a judging panel who must be satisfied that the nominee is eligible for the award. Therefore the person you have nominated must also complete the personal details section of the form.

30 OCTOBER - 4 NOVEMBER 2011

DUBAI

INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The International Bar Association (IBA), the world's largest international organisation of law societies, bar associations and individual lawyers engaged in transnational law, will hold its 2011 Annual Conference in Dubai from 30 October – 4 November.

As one of the largest international legal gatherings in 2011, it will attract over 4,000 lawyers from more than 90 countries.

All 55 specialist committees of the IBA's Legal Practice Division will present programmes covering current topics of significance to commercial lawyers worldwide. The IBA's Public and Professional Interest Division's committees and other entities will also be presenting full sessions, covering topics dealing with public interest and general professional work.

For a list of IBA committees, fora and other entities please see below.

The working sessions will be complemented by a full social programme – an ideal opportunity to establish and maintain business contacts and friendships with colleagues who span the global legal profession.

The IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee 2011 Annual Pro Bono Award

1 Nominees will be considered on the following criteria:
- Dedication – The Committee seeks to recognise pro bono work that exhibits an exceptional level of commitment and dedication to the provision of free legal services and access to justice.
- Innovation – The Committee seeks to recognise efforts and pro bono work that have been designed or carried out in an innovative fashion and might serve as a model for others in that jurisdiction and other jurisdictions.
- Impact – The Committee seeks to recognise work, including legislative reform, litigation, and transactional representation, that has brought about a significant impact – to an individual, community, group, or country, or to the provision of pro bono services generally.

2 The award is free to enter. It is open to all lawyers, whether or not they are members of the IBA.

3 Each nominee should be supported by at least two nominators. The nomination form should be completed by the persons or organisations submitting the nomination, and by the nominee, who must complete the personal details section of the form.

4 The nomination form must be sent by e-mail, fax or post to Charlotte Evans at the IBA London office.

5 Nominations must be submitted and received by Friday 1 July 2011. Nominations received after this time will not be considered.

6 The judging panel will consist of:
- Peter Maynard Peter D Maynard Counsel & Attorneys, Nassau, Bahamas; Chair, PPID
- Robin Sully Canadian Bar Association, Ottawa, Canada; Chair, Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee
- Tim Soutar Clifford Chance, Kent, England; Vice-Chair, Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee
- David Hillard Clayton Utz, Sydney; Australia; Executive Committee Member, Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee

7 The IBA London office will communicate the judges' decision to the winner by the end of July 2011.

8 The decision of the judging panel is final and no correspondence will be entered into. The decision will be published on the IBA website and in the next IBA Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee newsletter following the award. The winner will be contacted at the e-mail address they have given on the form. They will be required to provide a biographical note giving details of their legal career, studies and professional appointments.

9 The winner, as part of the award, will also receive the following:
- a free registration for the IBA 2011 Annual Conference, 30 October – 4 November 2011, Dubai, UAE;
- a contribution of up to $5,000 towards accommodation and travel costs to attend the conference;
- one years' free membership of the IBA, PPID and the Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee

10 Candidates for the award may be nominated by recipients of the relevant pro bono services; those working on the provision of those services; or by others involved in the administration, promotion and/or delivery of pro bono services generally.

11 Self nominations will not be accepted.

12 By submitting an application, nominees consent to use of their image and data for publicity purposes.

13 The IBA, the Pro Bono and Access to Justice Committee and the judging panel are not responsible for the loss, damage or non-arrival of any nomination form, nor for any costs or expenses incurred in the preparation or the submission of any form.

14 Participants will be expected to have read and accepted all the above terms and conditions.

15 The IBA reserves the right to amend and update these terms and conditions at any time without notice.
