Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, an international law firm, provides sophisticated legal services of the highest standard from its offices in the United States, Europe and Asia. With approximately 800 lawyers, Debevoise maintains a tradition of excellence established by its founders more than 75 years ago. As an integral part of our work in Asia, Debevoise has a substantial India Group offering a diverse range of corporate and international dispute resolution services to businesses and individuals.

Our Corporate Team is led by partner Thomas Britt, who has over 18 years of experience with India transactions. Based in our Asian regional headquarters in Hong Kong, the Team includes lawyers in the region as well as through the firm's global network of offices, offering Indian mergers & acquisitions, private equity and capital markets experience.

The Litigation Team, led by partners Lord (Peter) Goldsmith QC, PC in London and David W. Rivkin in New York, handles all aspects of complex contentious matters in a wide range of practice areas, including international arbitration, international litigation, general commercial disputes and investigations. The Team, which also includes lawyers throughout the firm worldwide, has represented Indian clients before courts and arbitration institutions throughout the world.

Clients in our India Group include major international investment banks, private equity firms, international strategic investors, multinational corporations, and Indian corporations looking to raise capital or acquire companies outside of India. Our India Group works closely with our other offices around the world, tapping into the global resources of the firm.
