

GENERAL INFORMATION

IBA

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 55,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies, spanning all continents. For more information, see <http://www.ibanet.org/>

LSSA

The Law Society of South Africa brings together the Black Lawyers Association, the National Association of Democratic Lawyers and independent attorneys, in representing the attorneys' profession in South Africa. For more information, see <https://www.lssa.org.za/>

SADCLA

The SADC Lawyers Association is the representative body of lawyers, law societies and bar associations in the 15-member SADC region. The mission of the Association is to uphold and defend the rule of law without fear or favour. <http://www.sadcla.org/>

ELF

The European Lawyers Foundation (ELF) is an organisation that undertakes projects that relate to the exercise of the profession of lawyers, the development of the law and practice pertaining to the rule of law and administration of justice, and substantive developments in the law itself, both at a European and international level.
