Assignment of sponsorships

All sponsorships are non-exclusive and non-negotiable.

Interpretation and definitions

In this agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

1. 'sponsorship' includes Headline Conference sponsor, Associate Conference sponsor, Headline social event sponsor, Exhibitor display table or any other category named by the IBA.
2. 'sponsor' means an organisation that is named as one of the Headline Conference sponsors, Headline social event sponsors, Exhibitor display or any other category named by the IBA.
3. 'IBA' means International Bar Association

Application/cancellation of sponsorship

Application for sponsorship must be made by completing the relevant online booking form. Invoices will be sent within 48 hours of the booking being placed. All invoices must be paid within 30 days of the date on the invoice. Invoices remaining unpaid at the commencement of the conference must be paid in full at the conference before delegate and or exhibitor passes are released. Invoices not paid at the conference, will be eligible for an additional charge on the outstanding amount, this charge will be two percent above the prevailing Bank of England base rate. All invoices must be paid in full, 30 days before the conference begins.

Cancellation of sponsorship, once the logo has been uploaded to the website will result in a £1,000 GBP release fee. If cancellation is made 60 days or less prior to the Conference start date, sponsorship fees will be charged at the full amount.

Cancellation of sponsorship must be directed in writing to:

Andrew Webster-Dunn, Head of Advertising and Sponsorship, International Bar Association, 4th Floor, 10 St Bride Street, London EC4A 4AD United Kingdom.

No discount or refund will be given for non-use of benefits by the sponsor associated with a sponsorship package.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this 'Information' section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this 'Information' section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Contract acceptance

The acceptance of the booking shall be at the discretion of the IBA, and upon acceptance, becomes a contract. By completing the online booking form, the sponsor agrees to comply with, and be subject to, the terms and conditions contained in this document. The IBA reserves the right to refuse or deny sponsorships to prospective companies, with no explanation.

Mailing lists

Mailing lists given as part of a sponsorship arrangement are subject to third-party exclusions and will not include email addresses or telephone numbers.

Sponsorship and speaking at an IBA conference

Under IBA Policy, speaking opportunities at an IBA conference or event must NOT be linked to sponsorship discussions or financial arrangements of any kind. Neither officers, nor representatives of the Sponsorship Department are authorised to agree, discuss or confirm speaking opportunities at an IBA conference as part of a sponsorship or financial agreement. Please notify Andrew Webster-Dunn, Head of Advertising and Sponsorship, International Bar Association on andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org if you are asked to sponsor a conference or event as a condition of an invitation to speak at the conference.

No amendments will be made at the event, only the people on the registration form may attend the conference. No discount or refund will be given for non-use of complimentary delegate passes.

IBA best practices policy for attendees, exhibitors and sponsors

IBA provides opportunities for sponsors to have direct exposure to conference attendees during the sponsored conference defined in this document. All conference sponsors are expected to abide by the following policy: (1) conference sponsors will not detract from any other company's investment by competing with the sponsored event, e.g., the hosting of an event at the same time as an IBA sponsored event; (2) conference sponsors will not interfere with another sponsor's or exhibitor's communication with an attendee communication, either directly or indirectly, e.g., the distribution of brochures or other collateral outside of a designated area/exhibit booth. These and other similar actions will be considered unacceptable, and will be prohibited except with the explicit written permission of IBA. All attendees, regardless of whether they sponsor, exhibit or network at an event, are subject to the guidelines of this policy. Attendance at the conference signifies agreement to this policy and subsequent consequences if violated.

Liability

Sponsors assume entire responsibility and hereby agree to protect, indemnify, defend and hold the IBA and its employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons or property, government charges or fines and attorney fees arising from or caused by the sponsor's installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy or use of conference premises or a part thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of the venue, its employees and agents.

Exhibitors and the exhibition hall

Law firms cannot exhibit or distribute literature promoting their firm at an IBA specialist conference. Exhibitors are not permitted to sublet, promote or distribute books, magazines, journals or printed literature promoting products or services which are not owned, produced or published by the paying exhibitor. Exhibiting companies are not permitted to distribute promotional literature on behalf of law firms or law firm associations. Exhibitors found to be in breach of the above clauses will be instructed to stop or risk expulsion from the exhibition hall.

Exhibitor attendance and badges

The maximum number of exhibitor passes allocated per booth is two, no exceptions will be given. Exhibitor badges cannot be used by lawyers and must be employed by the exhibiting company. Each exhibitor must wear an official IBA conference badge. Exhibitor badges cannot be assigned to another person at the conference. Only those registered prior to the conference may attend the event. Any other non-registered attendees will be asked to leave. Exhibitor passes must not be altered or covered. The exhibitor pass is valid for the duration of the conference. With the exception of the first or only conference reception, exhibitors are not permitted to attend conference social functions. Lunches and refreshment breaks are not provided as part of an exhibition or sponsorship package, therefore, exhibitor personnel are not permitted to attend lunches or refreshment breaks; those who do will be asked to leave. Exhibitors are not permitted to invite guests to the conference or exhibition. Notification of changes to exhibition staff must be sent via email, to jenny.roote@int-bar.org no later than five working days prior to the commencement of the conference. No additional badges will be issued at the event.

When exhibiting all solicitation, demonstration or other promotional activities must be confined to the limits of the area assigned. No sponsor can distribute promotional materials in a break out room or session. Literature on display shall be limited to reasonable quantities. A company's promotional materials should not interfere with any other company's sponsorship or exhibition. A sponsor is prohibited from distributing copyrighted materials. Law firms and organisations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials regarding their firm, partners, employees or exhibit at an IBA conference.

Any space not claimed and occupied for which no special arrangements have been made by noon on the day of the conference, may be removed, resold or reassigned by the IBA to eliminate empty spaces in the exhibit hall. The IBA will not refund any part of the booth rental and exhibitors will be liable for the full rental amount. Exhibitors may not assign or sublet any space allotted to them and may not advertise or display goods other than those manufactured or sold by them in the regular course of their business.

Scheduled exhibition dates and hours

Scheduled exhibition times are from 08:00hrs through to the end of the last working session specified in the programme for each day.

No work will be permitted once the conference registration desk has opened and the first delegate has arrived. Installation can be completed once delegates have begun the first session.

Booth construction and arrangement

IBA arranges for the erection of necessary draped tables of uniform style. All exhibits must be confined to the special limits of the booth as indicated on the floor plan or by the IBA conference organisers. The exhibition booth rental fee includes a table approximately 6' wide x 2' deep and two side chairs.
