I. Why the IBA?

I. Why the IBA?

With so many organizations vying for your participation, why choose the IBA Arbitration Committee?

It's simple, really!

- The Arbitration Committee is the premiere networking organization in the world for the arbitration community.
- While other arbitration organizations are connected to an arbitral institution or regionally focused, the IBA has a truly global mandate.
- We bring together arbitration lawyers from across the globe to define and shape the future of international arbitration together.

I. Why the IBA?

- The Arbitration Committee's work encompasses a wide scope of projects and mandates, including studying new areas of arbitral practice and developing reports, engaging with in-house counsel, arbitral institutions and regional bodies.
- We maintain a widely used set of arbitration guidelines and rules implemented by tribunals worldwide and are considered to reflect the most globally relevant and cutting-edge guidelines for arbitral practice.

IBA Background

- The International Bar Association, the global voice of the legal profession, is the foremost organization for international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies.
- Established in 1947, shortly after the creation of the United Nations, with the aim of protecting and promoting the rule of law globally, it was born out of the conviction that an organization made up of the world's bar associations could contribute to global stability and peace through the administration of justice.

II. Background and Core Benefits of IBA Membership

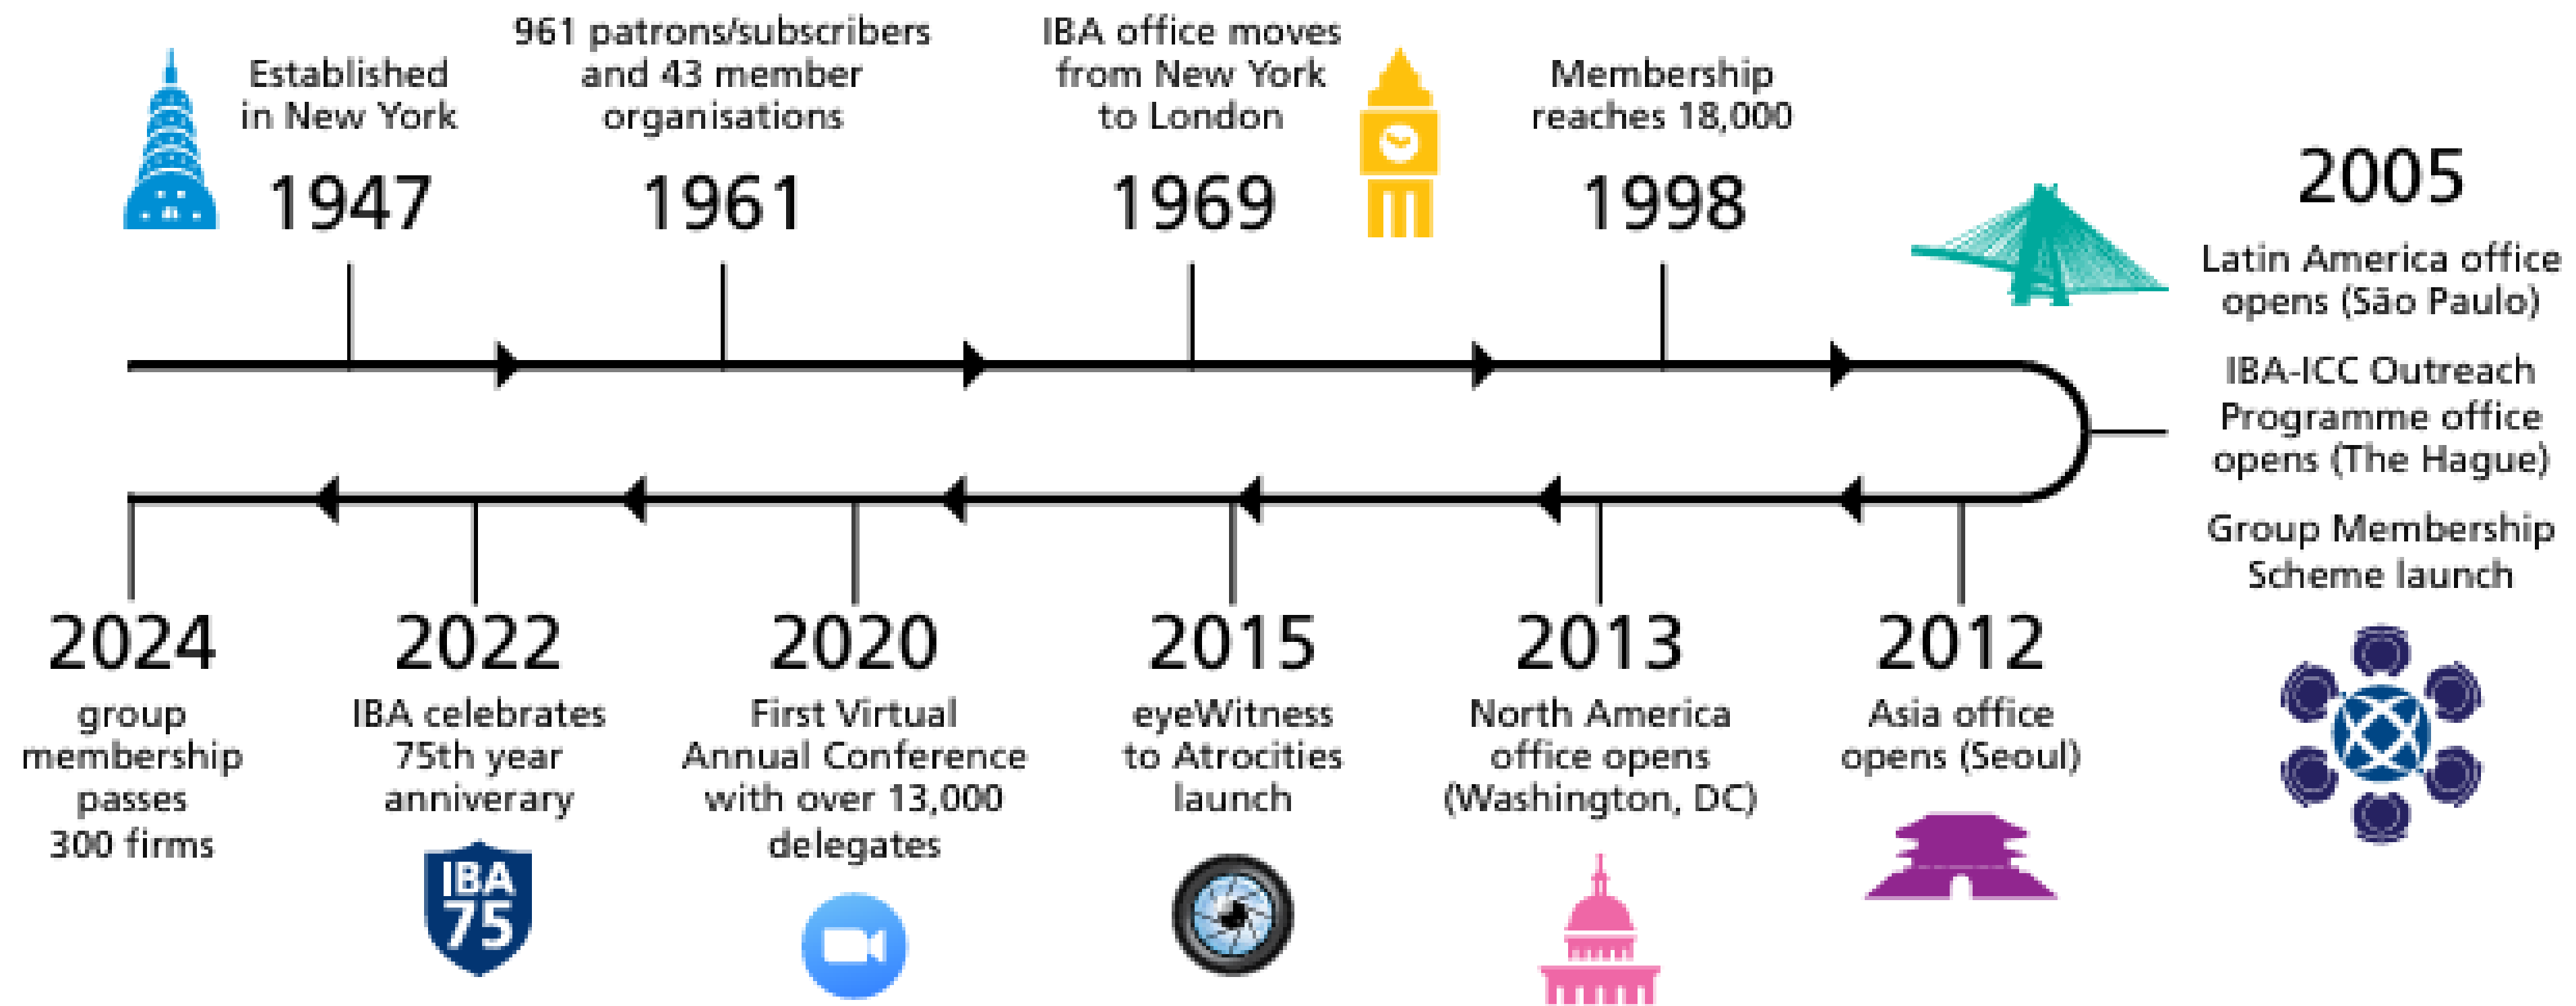

IBA Background

- In the years since its creation, the organization has evolved from an association comprised exclusively by bar associations and law societies, to one that incorporates individual international lawyers and entire law firms.
- The present membership is comprised of more than 80,000 individual international lawyers from most of the world's leading law firms and some 190 bar associations and law societies spanning more than 170 countries.
