0900 – 1015

AI: is it game over for humans?
There is hardly a private client advisor who has not heard of ChatGPT and similar large language models. While these are just fancy statistical next-word predictors, the texts generated by them are of an astounding human-like quality. In this session you will learn who the main players are in this field, what tools you as an advisor should be looking into, what their limitations are, and how these models will likely develop in the next few years. Brace yourself for the future, by attending the session – which will be both exciting and frightening!

Oh my GAAR! Have general tax anti-avoidance rules changed the way we approach tax planning?
In this panel we review how different countries approach tax anti-avoidance, whether through targeted measures or general anti-avoidance rules. We will discuss whether GAARs tend to achieve their stated purpose of stamping out unacceptable tax avoidance practices, and whether they ever go too far in preventing legitimate planning.

Roundtable: stiff winds, new currents and rough seas – our popular roundtable discussion on hot topics, changes and matters that will stay forever

- What are the most recent changes in law in your country?
- What are the boiling hot topics in your jurisdiction?
- How are you using artificial intelligence in your daily practice?

Should I stay, or should I go? Issues related to changing tax residency

Humans have constantly migrated through the centuries, and often such moves are driven as much by events at home as much as by the attraction of a new place. Expatriation and pre-immigration planning have long been key concerns for international wealth planning. Different considerations today can drive migration, but for those families looking to lower their overall effective tax rates a permanent move must follow a process and sometimes comes with an initial fiscal cost. In this session we focus our discussion on departure rules and tax implications when leaving a jurisdiction. We also consider whether the clients might be at risk of not truly severing tax residency ties particularly where they still have family and businesses in the original jurisdiction.

IBA Harassment Policy

IBA conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and their professional associates. The IBA values the participation of every delegate and member of the IBA and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all Conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, IBA staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the Conference and at all Conference events, receptions, and parties, whether officially organised by the IBA or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at any IBA event are required to conform to the IBA Harassment Policy.

See www.ibanet.org/iba-harassment-policy
1530 – 1645  Make it rain – advising Zennials

If we thought that advising our current clients is sometimes challenging, just wait until you deal with their children, or with the new generation entrepreneurs. This session will provide inputs and share experiences about dealing with the younger generation of wealth holders. We will see if it the type of wealth that is going to change, the characteristics of the clients, their financial needs, the advice they seek, or all of the above. Speakers across different ages and backgrounds will share their views, stories and insights, will try to help us to prepare for the next years in business, and will show us that even with AI, there are quite a few needs we can and must accommodate.

Session Chair

Inbal Faibish Wassmer

Speakers

No deductions or withholdings
All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Travel arrangements and visas
Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Hotel accommodation
The IBA does not have a room block however if you wish to book accommodation at Raffles London at the OWO please make your reservation using the following hotel website link www.raffles.com/london/rooms-and-suites

Delegates are responsible for making accommodation reservations directly with the hotel and entering into an agreement with the hotel regarding credit card guarantees, cancellation terms and conditions, and room rates. The IBA cannot accept responsibility for hotel accommodation disputes between a delegate and the hotel.

Unauthorised accommodation agents
It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering ‘assistance’ with registration and hotel bookings.

They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

Cancellation of registration or social functions
If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 16 February 2024, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 16 February will not be eligible for any refund of fees.

Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Upon submission of your completed Conference registration form to the IBA you are considered ‘registered’ pending payment. Please note that the cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as your registration is received.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA Conference in accordance with the terms of the ‘cancellation of registration’ clause included in the “Information” section of the relevant Conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such Conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant Conference.

About the IBA

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora, and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

Private Client Tax Committee overview:

The committee is concerned not only with what the law is but how it might develop in:

- Inheritance rights and succession rules
- Will making
- Lifetime giving
- Trusts
- Creditor claims against trusts and estates
- Regulatory compliance affecting trusts, including the tracing of proceeds of crime
- Charities, foundations and not-for-profit organisations
- Taxation of capital transfers and income; tax treaties
- Property rights of spouses and co-habitees
- Conflict of law rules

These matters are studied not only in the context of a sole jurisdiction but also with cross-border and multi-jurisdictional implications.

For more information please visit the Private Client Tax Committee home page.

Family Law Committee overview:

The Family Law Committee provides a unique forum for members from different countries and different legal systems to exchange views, meet during conferences and debate issues concerning the substantive and procedural aspects of family law. The work of the committee has focused on developments of international significance, involving all aspects of family law, for example, marriage, divorce, inheritance, human rights in the family, adoption, international child abduction, etc. There is a close interaction within the committee and its members through newsletters and via email.

The committee has ambitious aspirations for the future. It hopes to expand its membership and to encourage others to join the committee. Family law is at the core of general legal practice.
