Interpretation and definitions

In this agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

1. ‘sponsorship’ includes Headline Conference, Associate Conference, exhibitor, Member Event, Conference dinner, Conference reception, Conference refreshment break, Conference lunches or any other category named by the IBA.

2. ‘sponsor’ means an organisation that is named as one of the above listed sponsorship categories or any other category named by the IBA.

3. ‘IBA’ means International Bar Association

4. ‘GDPR’ means the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), as amended or replaced from time to time.

5. ‘Data Protection Law’ means the GDPR and all other national, international, or other laws related to data protection and privacy that are applicable to any territory where IBA or Sponsor processes personal data or is established.

Sponsorship and speaking at an IBA conference after placing an order, the sponsor will be liable to pay the following amounts:

- Cancellation after Sponsor logo is placed on the relevant IBA specialist conference webpage, up to 60 days prior to the conference commencement date, 50 per cent of agreed value of invoice.
- Cancellation 60 days prior to the conference commencement date as shown on the relevant conference webpage, 90 per cent of the agreed value of invoice

Invoicing

We are now issuing pro-forma invoices rather than final invoices as we recognise income on a cash receipts basis, as such we cannot issue an invoice until the pro-forma invoice is paid. This is a recognised practice by HMRC as per guidelines published in 1970 (see below) and allows us to comply with the VAT regulations imposed on us by the UK authorities. Pro-forma invoices will be sent within 48 hours of the booking being placed. The invoice and receipt will be issued as soon as payment is received. The pro-forma invoice contains all the details that would be included on an invoice, including the VAT rate charged it just has the words pro-forma instead of invoice.

HMRC Published Guidelines (since 1970)

If you need to issue a sales document for goods or services, you have not supplied yet you issue a pro-forma invoice. A pro-forma invoice IS a valid invoice requiring your payment. A pro-forma invoice IS NOT a VAT invoice (you will receive one of those automatically on payment)

All invoices must be paid within 30 days of the date on the invoice or no later than 30 days prior to the conference start date. Invoices remaining unpaid at the commencement of the conference must be paid in full at the conference before delegate and or exhibitor passes are released. For the avoidance of doubt, you shall not be permitted entry to the Conference unless full payment has been received by us.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us shall be in accordance with the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever. If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse a position than we would have been had there been no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Contract acceptance

The acceptance of the booking shall be at the discretion of the IBA, and upon acceptance, becomes a contract. By completing the online booking form, the sponsor agrees to comply with all the terms and conditions contained in this document. The IBA reserves the right to refuse or deny sponsorships to prospective companies, with no explanation.

Mailing lists

The IBA does not provide mailing list for any of its conferences.
