Assignment of sponsorships
All sponsorships are non-exclusive and non-negotiable.

Interpretation and definitions
In this agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

1. ‘Sponsorship’ includes Headline Conference, Associate Conference, exhibitor, Headline social event, Conference dinner, Conference reception, Conference refreshment break, Conference lunches or any other category as named by the IBA.
2. ‘sponsor’ means an organisation that is named as one of the above listed sponsorship categories or any other category named by the IBA.
3. ‘IBA’ means International Bar Association
4. ‘GDPDR’ means the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), as amended or replaced from time to time.
5. ‘Data Protection Law’ means the GDPR and all other national, international, or other laws related to data protection and privacy that are applicable to any territory where the IBA processes personal data or is established.

Application/cancellation of sponsorship

Applications to sponsor a social event or exhibit at an IBA specialist conference must be made by clicking on the appropriate link in this pack and completing the relevant online booking form.

Exhibitor/sponsorship packages, including benefits and costs cannot be shared between firms or companies. No discount or refund will be given for non-use of benefits by the sponsor associated with a sponsorship package.

Should the sponsor wish to withdraw from being a sponsor of the chosen IBA specialist conference after placing an order, the sponsor will be liable to pay the following amounts:

- Cancellation after Sponsor logo is placed on the relevant IBA specialist conference webpage, up to 60 days prior to the conference commencement date, 50 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.
- Cancellation 60 days prior to the conference commencement date as shown on the relevant conference webpage, 90 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.
- Cancellation 30 days or less prior to the conference commencement date as shown on the relevant conference webpage, 100 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.

Cancellation of sponsorship must be directed in writing to:

Andrew Webster-Dunn, Sponsorship Director, International Bar Association, Chancery House, 53-64 Chancery Lane, London, WC2A 1QS United Kingdom or andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org

Invoicing
We are now issuing pro-forma invoices rather than final invoices as we recognise income on a receipts basis, as such we cannot issue an invoice until the pro-forma invoice is paid. This is a recognised practice by HMRC as per guidelines published in 1970 (see below) and allows us to comply with the VAT regulations imposed on us by the UK authorities. Pro-forma invoices will be sent within 48 hours of the booking being placed. The invoice and receipt will be issued as soon as payment is received, the pro-forma invoice contains all the details that would be included on an invoice, including the VAT rate charged. It just has the words pro-forma instead of invoice.

HMRC Published Guidelines (since 1970)
If you need to issue a sales document for goods or services, you have not supplied yet you issue a pro-forma invoice. A pro-forma invoice IS a valid invoice requiring your payment. A pro-forma invoice IS NOT a VAT invoice (you will receive one of the above) automatically on payment of invoice.

All invoices must be paid within 30 days of the date on the invoice or no later than 30 days prior to the conference start date. Invoices remaining unpaid at the commencement of the conference must be paid in full at the conference before delegate and or exhibitor passes are released. For the avoidance of doubt, you shall not be permitted entry to the Conference unless full payment has been received by us.

No deductions or withholdings
All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Contract acceptance
The acceptance of the booking shall be at the discretion of the IBA, and upon acceptance, becomes a contract. By completing the online booking form, the sponsor agrees to comply with, and be subject to, the terms and conditions contained in this document. The IBA reserves the right to refuse or deny sponsorships to prospective companies, with no explanation.

Sponsorship and speaking at an IBA conference
Under IBA Policy, speaking opportunities at an IBA conference or event CANNOT be linked to exhibiting or sponsorship discussions. Neither Officers, nor representatives of the IBA Sponsorship Department are authorised to agree, discuss or confer, speaking opportunities as part of a sponsorship agreement. If you are invited to speak at an IBA conference; and told that a condition of this invitation is that you MUST also pay to exhibit or be a sponsor at the conference, please email Andrew Webster-Dunn, Sponsorship Director, International Bar Association at andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org confirming proof of the agreement. If it is proven in writing that being exhibitor or sponsor is a condition of your speaker invitation, the necessary steps will be taken to reimburse your sponsorship funds and provide you with the sponsorship benefits in full.

Complimentary sponsor delegate badges
Sponsor delegate badges, given as part of a sponsorship agreement, cannot be assigned to speakers, panelists, moderators, Conference Chair or Co-Chairs, press, adjudicators, or anyone listed in the programme as speaking in any capacity. A sponsor delegate badge can only be used by a representative of the sponsoring company or company employed by or by an independent counsel of a company proposed by the sponsor. The sponsor delegate pass cannot be given to a private practitioner of another law firm. Sponsor delegate badges cannot be used by companies companies linked to a law firm. Delegate badges cannot be exchanged, swapped, reassigned or given to another person at any time during the conference.

Anybody found to be in the possession of a sponsor delegate badge that is assigned to someone else will be asked to leave immediately. Delegate badges must always be worn and visible. If the delegate attempts to entitle the delegate to the same benefits as a paying delegate. Sponsor delegate badge holders may attend all non-ticketed social events, sessions, and purchase tickets to any other IBA ticketed social events. The delegate badge is valid for the duration of the conference, for the named delegate. A Sponsor delegate online registration form must be completed by the sponsor to obtain the Sponsor delegate badge. Notice of change in delegate passes must be sent via e-mail, to the appropriate member of the IBA Sponsorship team no later than five working days prior to the commencement of the conference. No amendments will be made at the event, only the people on the registration form may attend the conference. No discount or refund will be given for non-use of complimentary delegate passes.

Data Protection
For the purposes of this agreement and party’s processing of personal data in connection with this agreement, the parties agree that each party acts as an independent data controller. Each party shall (i) only process personal data in compliance with and subject to any data protection obligations which it is subject (ii) comply with the Data Protection Law, (ii) only process the other party’s personal data as reasonably necessary to perform its obligations and exercise its rights under this agreement; (iii) ensure that it has obtained all necessary rights, permissions, or consents required for the disclosure of personal data to the other party as specified in the agreement, and (iv) act reasonably in providing such information and assistance as the other party may reasonably request to enable the other party to comply with its obligations under Data Protection Law.

Exhibitor badges cannot be used by lawyers of any description. Exhibit badge holders must be employed by the exhibiting company. Exception for the first or only conference reception, exhibitors are not permitted to attend any other conference social functions. Lunches and refreshment breaks are not provided as part of an exhibition or sponsorship package; therefore, exhibitor personnel are not permitted to attend lunches or refreshment breaks; the exhibitor will be asked if they have permission to invite guests to the conference or exhibition. Notification of changes to exhibition staff must be sent via email, to andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org no later than five working days prior to the commencement of the conference.

Exhibitor use of space/promotional materials
When exhibiting all solicitation, demonstration or other promotional activities must be confined to the limits of the area assigned. No sponsor can distribute promotional materials in a breakout room or session. Literature on display shall be limited to reasonable quantities. A company’s promotional materials should not interfere with any other company’s investment. A sponsor’s exhibit shall not be acceptable for distributing copyrighted materials. Law firms and organizations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials regarding their firm, paid staff or employees, or exhibit at an IBA conference. Any space not occupied and for which no special arrangements have been made by noon on the day of the conference, may be removed by the IBA to eliminate empty spaces in the exhibit hall. The IBA will not refund any part of the booth rental and exhibitor liability for the full rental amount.

Scheduled exhibition dates and hours
Exhibitors must have display materials unpacked and ready for display, with all packaging cleared away before 08:00hrs on the commencement date of the conference. No work may take place once the conference registration desk has opened and the first delegate has arrived. Installation can be completed once delegates have begun the first session.

Booth construction and arrangement
IBA ranges for the erection of necessary draped tables of uniform style. All exhibit must be confined to the limits of the area assigned. No sponsor can distribute promotional materials in a breakout room or session. Literature on display shall be limited to reasonable quantities. A company’s promotional materials should not interfere with any other company’s investment. A sponsor’s exhibit shall not be acceptable for distributing copyrighted materials. Law firms and organizations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials regarding their firm, paid staff or employees, or exhibit at an IBA conference. Any space not occupied and for which no special arrangements have been made by noon on the day of the conference, may be removed by the IBA to eliminate empty spaces in the exhibit hall. The IBA will not refund any part of the booth rental and exhibitor liability for the full rental amount.

Care of exhibition space and building
The exhibitor shall care for and keep occupied space in good order. Special cleaning and set up of the booth equipment material will be the exhibitor’s responsibility. Exhibitors may not place anything in the exhibition space common areas. Exhibitors, or their agents, must not injure or deface the wall or floors of the building. When such damage appears, the exhibitor is liable to the owner of the property so damaged. Electrical wiring must conform to the health and safety regulations of the country in which the event is held. Combustible materials or explosives are not permitted in the exhibition area. All exhibits shall serve the interest of the members of IBA and be operated in a way that does not detract from other conference management or the accepted appearance of the building. Exhibitors must not make any alteration to the building or building complex other than those to the immediate exhibit space as specified by the IBA. All exhibits must conform to all pertinent laws, ordinances, regulations, and codes of duly authorised local, state and federal governing bodies concerning fire, health and safety as well as the rules and regulations of the operators of and/owners of the property where the conference is held.

Function space
It is understood that no rooms, suites, or other space in the conference hotel are to be used for exhibition purposes, workshops or other exhibitor sales-related use.

Exhibition freight
Exhibitors are responsible for the delivery and removal of their freight to and from the conference venue. The IBA is unable to assist in the shipment of materials to and from the conference venue. Material must be labelled exactly as specified by the IBA. The IBA will not be held responsible for the loss of any freight materials, especially those incorrectly labelled. Information on shipping can be obtained by contacting Andrew Webster-Dunn at andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org or +44 (0)20 7842 0090.

Removal of exhibits
No exhibitor shall commence dismantling or packing product before the end of the coffee break on the last day of the conference. It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to arrange with the conference venue for the storage of materials until collected by courier or Shipping Company. The IBA will not act on behalf of an exhibitor for the collection of any freight. All materials remaining after the conference closes or at a time specified; by an IBA representative, will be removed and destroyed by the conference venue staff, if arrangements have not been made for storage or collection. The IBA will not be held responsible for any items left behind.

Sales, samples and souvenirs
No goods are to be sold for delivery on the floor. Orders may be taken for future delivery. Free samples and souvenirs may be given away at your designated booth only. The giving of unsolicited commercial literature at an IBA conference or social event; is strictly forbidden. All unauthorised items will be removed and in the first instance returned to the representative of the relevant company. All subsequent; items will be removed and disposed of without notification.

Insurance
Exhibitors must obtain insurance coverage against damage or loss and public liability insurance against injury to the person or property of others. Exhibition materials should be covered from the time they are shipped, through move-in, exhibit dates, move-out and until all materials have been received at the point of origin. The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages and claims arising out of injury or damage to exhibitor’s display, equipment and other property brought upon the premises of the venue and shall indemnify and hold harmless the IBA from all such abuses, damages and claims.

Liability
Exhibiting companies assume entire responsibility and hereby agree to protect, indemnify, defend and hold the IBA and its employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons or property, government charges or fines and attorney fees arising from or caused by the exhibitor’s installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy or use of conference premises or a part thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of the venue, its employees and agents.

Compliance
The exhibitor agrees to abide by and comply with all the Terms & Conditions, including any amendments that may make alterations to time, set out in this document. The exhibitor further assumes all responsibility for compliance with all pertinent laws, ordinances, regulations, and codes of duly authorised local, state and federal governing bodies concerning fire, health and safety as well as the rules and regulations of the operators of and/owners of the property where the conference is held.

Conference postponement or cancellations
IBA at its discretion shall have the right to postpone or cancel the conference and shall be liable in no way to the sponsor for losses resulting from such delay or cancellation. IBA will not be liable for fulfilment of this contract as to the delivery or exhibition space if non-delivery is due to any of the following causes including, but not limited to: damage to goods, acts of God, civil disturbances, insurrections, strikes, the authority of the law, or for any cause beyond IBA’s control. It will however, in the event of it not being able to hold a conference for any of the above-stated reasons reimburse the sponsor for the amount already paid for the sponsorship.

Amendments
Any and all matters and questions not specifically covered by the preceding regulations shall be subject to the decision of the IBA. Sponsors shall be notified in writing of any amendments to these regulations.
