Assignment of sponsorships

All sponsorships are non-exclusive and non-negotiable.

Interpretation and definitions

In this agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

1. ‘Sponsorship’ includes Headline Conference, Associate Conference, exhibitor, Headline social event, Conference dinner, Conference reception, Conference refreshment break, Conference lunches, or any other category named by the IBA.

2. ‘sponsor’ means an organisation that is named as one of the above listed sponsorship categories or any other category named by the IBA.

3. ‘IBA’ means International Bar Association

4. ‘GDPR’ means the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), as amended or replaced from time to time.

5. ‘Data Protection Law’ means the GDPR and all other national, international, or other laws related to data protection and privacy that are applicable to any territory where the IBA processes personal data or is established.

Application/cancellation of sponsorship

Applications to sponsor a social event or exhibit at an IBA specialist conference must be made by clicking on the appropriate link in this pack and completing the relevant online booking form.

Exhibitor/sponsorship packages, including benefits and costs cannot be shared between firms or companies. No discount or refund will be given for non-use of benefits by the sponsor associated with a sponsorship package.

Should the sponsor wish to withdraw from being a sponsor of the chosen IBA specialist conference after placing an order, the sponsor will be liable to pay the following amounts:

- Cancellation after Sponsor logo is placed on the relevant IBA specialist conference webpage, up to 60 days prior to the conference commencement date, 50 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.
- Cancellation 60 days prior to the conference commencement date as shown on the relevant conference webpage, 90 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.
- Cancellation 30 days or less prior to the conference commencement date as shown on the relevant conference webpage, 100 per cent of the agreed value of invoice.

Cancellation of sponsorship must be directed in writing to: Andrew Webster-Dunn, Sponsorship Director, International Bar Association, Chancery House, 53-64 Chancery Lane, London, WC2A 1QS United Kingdom or andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org

Invoicing

We are now issuing pro-forma invoices rather than final invoices as we recognise income on a receipts basis, as such we cannot issue an invoice until the pro-forma invoice is paid. This is a recognised practice by HMRC as per guidelines published in 1970 (see below) and allows us to comply with the VAT regulations imposed on us by the UK authorities. Pro-forma invoices will be sent within 48 hours of the booking being placed. The invoice and receipt will be issued as soon as payment is received, the pro-forma invoice contains all the details that would be included on an invoice, including the VAT rate charged it just has the words pro-forma instead of invoice.

HMRC Published Guidelines (since 1970)

If you need to issue a sales document for goods or services, you have not supplied yet you issue a pro-forma invoice. A pro-forma invoice is a valid invoice requiring your payment. A pro-forma invoice IS NOT a VAT invoice (you will receive one of those and includes an invoice on our company letterhead). All invoices must be paid within 30 days of the date on the invoice or no later than 30 days prior to the conference start date. Invoices remaining unpaid at the commencement of the conference must be paid in full at the conference before delegate and or exhibitor passes are released. For the avoidance of doubt, you shall not be permitted entry to the Conference unless full payment has been received by us.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this ‘information’ section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatever. If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this ‘information’ section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Contract acceptance

The acceptance of the booking shall be at the discretion of the IBA, and upon acceptance, becomes a contract. By completing the online booking form, the sponsor agrees to comply with, and be subject to, the terms and conditions contained in this document. The IBA reserves the right to refuse or deny sponsorships to prospective companies, with no explanation.

Sponsorship and speaking at an IBA conference

Under IBA Policy, speaking opportunities at an IBA conference or event CANNOT be linked to exhibiting or sponsorship discussions. Neither Officers, nor representatives of the IBA Sponsorship Department are authorised to agree, discuss or confirm speaking opportunities as part of a sponsorship agreement. If you are invited to speak at an IBA conference; and told that a condition of this invitation is that you MUST also pay to exhibit or be a sponsor at the conference, please email Andrew Webster-Dunn, Sponsorship Director, International Bar Association on andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org sending proof of the agreement. If it is proven in writing that being exhibitor or sponsor is a condition of your speaker invitation, the necessary steps will be taken to reimburse your sponsorship funds and provide you with the sponsorship benefits in full.

Complimentary sponsor delegate badges

Sponsor delegate badges, given as part of a sponsorship agreement, cannot be assigned to speakers, panelists, moderators, Conference Chair or Co-Chairs, press, adjudicators, or anyone listed in the programme as speaking in any capacity. A sponsor delegate badge can only be used by a representative of the sponsoring company in their capacity as a delegate or by an independent counsel of a company proposed by the sponsor. The sponsor delegate pass cannot be given to a private practitioner of another law firm. Sponsor delegate badges cannot be used by companies companies linked to a law firm. Delegate badges cannot be exchanged, swapped, reissued or given to another person at any time during the conference. Anyone found to be in the possession of a sponsor delegate badge that is assigned to someone else will be asked to leave immediately. Delegate badges must always be worn and visible. Delegate badges entitle the delegate to the same benefits as a paying delegate. Sponsor delegate badge holders may attend all non-ticketed social events, sessions, and purchase tickets to any other IBA ticketed social events. The delegate badge is valid for the duration of the conference, for the named delegate. A Sponsor delegate online registration form must be completed by the sponsor to obtain the Sponsor delegate badge. Notification of change in the delegate passes must be sent via e-mail to the appropriate member of the IBA Sponsorship team no later than five working days prior to the commencement of the conference. No amendments will be made at the event, only the people on the registration form may attend the conference. No discount or refund will be given for non-use of complimentary delegate passes.

Data Protection

For the purposes of this agreement and party’s processing of personal data in connection with this agreement, the parties agree that each party acts as an independent data controller. Each party shall (i) only process personal data in accordance with and subject to the GDPR; (ii) notify the other party of any personal data breach; and (iii) only process personal data as reasonably necessary to perform its obligations and exercise its rights under this agreement; (iii) ensure that it has obtained personal data controllers’ consent required for the disclosure of personal data to the other party as specified in the agreement, and (iv) act reasonably in providing such information and assistance as the other party may reasonably request to enable the other party to comply with its obligations under Data Protection Law.

For the purposes of this agreement, the terms personal data, controller, processor, processing and data subject and supervisory authority shall have the meanings ascribed to them under the GDPR. IBA Privacy Policy https://www.ibanet.org/web-privacy-policy.aspx

Promotion video
Maximum duration of promotional video is to be two minutes. Only content relevant to the sponsoring company can be included. Videos should be sent to the IBA at least two weeks prior to the meeting. Video delegates at the meeting room prior to each session commencing. Video content will appear in alphabetical order.

IBA best practices policy for attendees, exhibitors, and sponsors
IBA provides opportunities for sponsors to have direct exposure to conference attendees through the sponsorship defined in this document. All conference sponsors are expected to abide by the following policy: (1) conference sponsors will not detract from any other company’s investment by competing with the sponsored event; e.g., the hosting of a parallel event to the same conference; (2) conference sponsors will not interfere with another sponsor’s or exhibitor’s communication with an attendee, communication, either directly or indirectly, e.g., the distribution of brochures or other collateral outside of a designated area/exhibit booth. These and other similar actions will be considered unacceptable and will be prohibited except with the explicit written permission of IBA. All attendees, regardless of whether they sponsor, exhibit or network at an event, are subject to the conditions of this policy and subsequent consequences if violated.

Exhibitors and the exhibition hall
Law firms cannot exhibit or distribute literature promoting their firm at an IBA specialist conference. Exhibitors are not permitted to sublet, promote, or distribute books, magazines, journals or printed literature promoting products or services which are not owned, produced or published by the paying exhibitor. Exhibiting companies are not permitted to distribute promotional literature on behalf of law firms and organisations. Exhibitors found to be in breach of the above clauses will be instructed to stop or risk expulsion from the exhibition hall.

Exhibitor attendance and badges
The maximum number of named exhibitor passes allocated per exhibitor table for an IBA specialist conference is Two. No exceptions will be given. No additional badges will be issued at the event, even if a badge has been lost. Exhibitor badges cannot be exchanged, swapped, given or given to another person at any time during the conference. Anyone found to be in the possession of an exhibitor badge that is assigned to someone else will be asked to leave and their exhibitor table will be closed immediately, with no refund or future bookings accepted for any IBA conference. Only those registered prior to the conference may attend the event. No additional team members from exhibiting companies will be given access to the conference venue area at any point. Each exhibitor must wear an official IBA conference badge. Exhibitor passes must not be altered or covered. The exhibitor pass is valid for the duration of the conference. Exhibitor badges cannot be used by lawyers of any description. Exhibition badge holders must be employed by the exhibiting company. Except for the first or only conference exhibition, exhibitors are not permitted to attend any other conference social functions. Lunches and refreshment breaks are not provided as part of an exhibition or sponsorship package; therefore, exhibitor personnel are not permitted to attend lunches or refreshment breaks; these are excluded. Exhibitors are not permitted to invite guests to the conference or exhibition. Notification of changes to exhibition staff must be sent via email, to andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org no later than five working days prior to the commence of the conference.

Exhibitor use of space/promotional materials
When exhibiting all solicitation, demonstration or other promotional activities must be confined to the limits of the area assigned. No sponsor can distribute promotional materials in a breakout room or session. Literature on display shall be limited to reasonable quantities. A company’s promotional materials should not interfere with any other company’s exhibition. Exhibiting companies are required to distribute copyrighted materials. Law firms and organisations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials. Law firms and organisations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials. Law firms and organisations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials. Law firms and organisations that provide legal advice as part of their day-to-day business cannot distribute promotional materials.

Removal of exhibits
No exhibitor shall commence dismantling or packing product before the end of the final coffee break on the last day of the conference. It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to arrange with the conference venue for the storage of materials until collected by courier or Shipping Company. The IBA will not act on behalf of an exhibitor for the collection of any freight. All materials remaining after the conference closes or at a time specified; by an IBA representative, will be removed and destroyed by the conference venue staff, if arrangements have not been made for storage or collection. The IBA will not be held responsible for any items left behind.

Sales, samples and souvenirs
No goods are to be sold for delivery on the floor. Orders may be taken for future delivery. Free samples and souvenirs may be given away at your designated exhibit booth only if acting in unison of an individual independent literature with the IBA at an IBA conference or social event; is strictly forbidden. All unauthorised items will be removed and in the first instance returned to the representative of the relevant company. All subsequent, items will be removed and disposed of without notification.

Insurance
All exhibitors must obtain insurance coverage against damage or loss and public liability insurance against injury to the person or property of others. Exhibition materials should be covered from the time they are shipped, through move-in, exhibition dates, move-out and until all materials have been received at the point of origin. The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages and claims arising out of injury or damage to exhibitor’s display, equipment and other property brought upon the premises of the venue and shall indemnify and hold harmless the IBA from all such abuses, damages and claims.

Liability
Exhibiting companies assume entire responsibility and hereby agree to protect, indemnify, defend and hold the IBA and its employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons or property, government charges or fines and attorney fees arising from or caused by the exhibitor’s installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy or use of conference premises or a part thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole negligence of the venue, its employees and agents.

Compliance
The exhibitor agrees to abide by and comply with all the Terms & Conditions, including any amendment that may make the IBA’s representation of time, set out in this document. The exhibitor further assumes all responsibility for compliance with all pertinent laws, ordinances, regulations, and codes of duly authorised local, state and federal governing bodies concerning fire, health and safety as well as the rules and regulations of the operators and/or owners of the property where the conference is held.

Function space
It is understood that no rooms, suites, or other space in the conference hotel are to be used for exhibition purposes, workshops or other exhibitor sales-related use. Hosting International cocktail parties, open houses, and similar exhibitor-sponsored affairs, should be checked with the IBA conference management so as not to conflict with any of the programmed events.

Conference postponement or cancellations
IBA at its discretion shall have the right to postpone or cancel the conference and shall be liable in no way to the sponsor for losses resulting from such delay or cancellation. IBA will not be liable for fulfilment of this contract as to the delivery of exhibition space if non-delivery is due to any of the following causes including, but not limited to: damage to God, accidents, acts of God, insurrections, strikes, the authority of the law, or for any cause beyond IBA’s control. It will however, in the event of it not being able to hold a conference for any of these reasons reimburse the sponsor for the amount already paid for the sponsorship.

Amendments
Any and all matters and questions not specifically covered by the preceding regulations shall be subject to the decision of the IBA. Sponsors shall be notified in writing of any amendments to these regulations.
