

the global voice of the legal profession™

IBA Young Lawyers' Training

Covid-19's global impact on young lawyers – career, challenges and opportunities

A webinar presented by the IBA Young Lawyers' Committee

Thursday, 29 October 2020, 1200-1300 GMT

This course is part of an ongoing programme devised by the IBA's Section on Public and Professional Interest (SPPI) to help young lawyers and junior members of the profession understand the fundamentals of international legal practice.

The session will focus on the impact the global pandemic has had on young lawyers globally, and will consider key challenges opportunities and developments faced by young lawyers. The discussion will include career progression, career/practice development, employment opportunities, and mobility and global connectivity.

Moderators:

Mark Gilligan Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, Abu Dhabi; Chair, IBA Young Lawyers' Outreach Subcommittee

Masha Ooijevaar Clyde & Co, Dubai; Co-Vice Chair, IBA Young Lawyers' Committee

Speakers:

Robert Bernstein Holland & Knight, New York; Member, IBA Human Rights Law Committee Advisory Board

Colin Carroll Empowerment International, Dublin

Arush Khanna Numen Law Offices, New Delhi; Bar Executive Officer, Society of Indian Law Firms

Alberto Mata Rodriguez Deutsche Pfandbriefbank AG, Madrid; Co-Vice Chair, IBA Young Lawyers' Committee

Hin Han Shum Squire Patton Boggs, Hong Kong SAR; Asia Pacific Regional Forum Liaison Officer, IBA Young Lawyers' Committee

Certificates of attendance for this webinar will be provided to all IBA members who have attended the live broadcast for a minimum of 30 minutes.

Currently only IBA members will be provided with a certificate free of charge. Certificates for non-members are chargeable, please make enquiries at webinars@int-bar.org.

For details on how to raise your firms profile via banner advertising and sponsorship of an IBA webinar, email andrew.webster-dunn@int-bar.org or download the packs from the webinar webpage.