Strategic Decision-Making for the Global Lawyer Programme

Registration fee of USD$60 includes lunch.

0900 – 0910  Welcome and introduction

0910 – 1210  Corporate Strategies for Lawyers
Professor John Kirks  Lecturer in Strategy & Innovation, Boston University’s School of Management

This session will introduce participants to issues associated with formulating and implementing business strategy in the interconnected global environment. We examine the difference between strategies for corporations and business units and their implications for legal departments. We will also discuss how the networked economy has created both opportunities and challenges for firms.

Tea / coffee will be served 1040 – 1055 outside the session room

1210 – 1300  Lunch

1300 – 1600  Financial Decision Making for Lawyers
Professor Michael Smith  Associate Professor of Accounting, Boston University School of Management

This session examines the analytical tools to evaluate value creation, including Payback Period, Book Rate of Return, Net Present Value (NPV), and Internal Rate of Return (IRR). We will also explore the construction and interpretation of financial ratios and apply ratio analysis to evaluate firm performance and identify sources of risk. Lawyers will have a better understanding of financial terms and tools that are used in their transactional activities.

Tea / coffee will be served 1430 – 1445 outside the session room

1615 – 1730  Panel Discussion: Driving Business Development
The program will end with a practical discussion of corporate leaders and lawyers who have been involved in transformative business development activities. We will focus on how the networked economy has radically changed the ways in which successful lawyers and business development executives collaborate.

MOBILE TELEPHONES
Delegates are requested to ensure that mobile telephones and any other portable devices are switched off during the working sessions.
