Singapore's role in the global payments system

Singapore is a major 'money centre'. Singapore plays an important role in the global payments system. There have been some recent examples of money laundering taking place in Singapore, which has affected the external perception of Singapore.

This session will discuss what Singapore is doing about that perception (and the reality of all money centres being at risk of being used for money laundering) and the consequences for lawyers doing business in Singapore. Are lawyers discharging their responsibilities?

S Suresh Harry Elias Partnership, Singapore

1245 – 1400 Lunch

1400 – 1445 SESSION FOUR

'Financial hygiene' is a job for all partners

Pricing, billing and collections are not seen as an attractive part of the practice of law. Many lawyers, including many partners, shy away from getting involved in the 'business aspects' of the practice of law. However, financial hygiene, getting the pricing right, getting the billing right and ensuring cash is collected, are critical to the success of any law firm and are ultimately jobs that all partners need to pay attention to. It is also important that law firms put in place the right mechanisms to ensure the burden on partners is not too great and/or using too much of their time. Striking the balance whilst underscoring the importance of financial hygiene is the topic of this session.

Moderator

Wai King Ng WongPartnership, Singapore

Panellists

Soh Chun Bin Icon Law, Singapore

Valerie Kong Clifford Chance, Singapore

Shirleen Tan Walkers, Singapore

Yarman J Vachha YJV Consulting, Singapore

1445 – 1515 ARMCHAIR INTERVIEW

Developments in India

There is rightly a focus on India currently. It is one of the fastest growing economies in the world and after many years of discussion there appears to be some progress on 'liberalisation', allowing foreign lawyers to carry on some form of legal work in India. There is also much scepticism about whether this will really happen. Given the business connections between Singapore and India, Singapore is already an important hub for Indian legal issues. How will this be impacted by liberalisation and what are the opportunities for law firms in Singapore and Asia more broadly?

This session will be an 'off the record' update on what is happening in India.

An armchair discussion with Stephen Revell Making Change Happen, London; Senior Co-Chair, IBA Law Firm Management Committee, and

Jean Muller Khaitan & Co, Singapore
Amit Singh Linklaters, Singapore

1515 – 1530 Coffee break

1530 – 1615 SESSION FIVE

Complexities in partner transitions and client management in law firms – balancing change

This session will hear law firms', in-house counsel and client perspectives on the complexities of partner transitions and client management in law firms, focusing on balancing change. We will explore emerging trends in partner movements and their future direction, as well as strategies and best practices for successful integration and retention. Discussions will delve into the legal, ethical and cultural considerations in partner movements, and examine strategies to maintain client trust, relationships and management. We will also address navigating work redistribution and talent retention post-departure, financial planning, compensation structures and governance.

Moderator

Rupinder Malik JSA, Gurgaon, Haryana

Panellists

Akshay Kishore Bird & Bird, Singapore

Stanley Park Stanley Park & Associates, Singapore

Farhana Sharmeen Latham & Watkins, Singapore

1615 – 1645 ARMCHAIR INTERVIEW

What do clients think about the use of AI by law firms?

Many law firms are investigating how they can best use AI. Meanwhile, many of our associates are already using ChatGPT and other systems to generate work – sometimes with the knowledge of the firm and sometimes without. Although law firms continue to agonise over artificial intelligence (AI), this session will allow us to hear from the clients. What issues are clients worried about with regard to their law firms using AI? As well as themselves wrestling with how they use AI, there are many issues that they are concerned about so far as their law firms are concerned. We will hear those concerns.

Clients interviewed by Jerry Koh Allen & Gledhill, Singapore; Member, IBA Securities Law Committee Advisory Board

Chee Kin Lam General Counsel, DBS, Singapore
Carsten Rosenkranz Thomson Reuters, Singapore

1645 – 1730 SESSION SIX

Best practice strategies for relationships with law firms and other 'conduits' for work including banks and legal service providers

Many law firms prefer 'international work'. Often, they can charge more than for domestic work. Much of that work comes through their relationships with other law firms. In addition, many law firms rely on a broader set of relationships to win work other than direct relationships with their clients. These include relationships with bankers putting deals together, with alternative legal service providers and with consultants of all sorts and sizes. How should law firms best manage these relationships? Are commission payments acceptable (or indeed allowed)? How should these 'referrals' be best tracked and measured? These and other questions will be answered in this session.

Continuing Professional Development/Continuing Legal Education

For Conference delegates from jurisdictions where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the IBA will provide a Certificate of Attendance for the Conference. Subject to CPD/CLE requirements, Conference delegates can use this to obtain the relevant number of hours' accreditation. The number of CPD/CLE hours available may vary depending on the rules applied by the members' bar association/law society on time recording criteria.

A Certificate of Attendance is available to Conference delegates on request. Please ask at the IBA Conference registration desk for information on how to obtain the certificate.

Terms and Conditions

All conference delegates must provide full and accurate information regarding their identity and contact information. Failure to do so will result in their conference booking being cancelled.

Full payment must be received to obtain your Conference documentation.

Cancellation of conference or social functions

If cancellation is received by email to Joey.Feng@int-bar.org on or before the early-registration deadline date, fees will be refunded less a 15 per cent administration charge.

Cancellations received after the early-registration deadline date and up to 14 days prior to the first day of the Conference, will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA. Monies cannot be kept on IBA member accounts or transferred to future IBA conferences.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this time. Conference or social function bookings received after this time will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Payment

When booking the Conference, full payment of the booking fee is required at the time we accept your booking.

VAT will be added to delegate fees as appropriate. Our prices may change at any time, but any price change will not affect bookings that we have confirmed with you. Booking fees for the Conference can only be paid in the booking fee currency listed above.

Credit card payments: The IBA accepts these payment methods: American Express, Diners, Discover, JCB, Maestro, Mastercard, UnionPay and Visa. Payments from local or affiliate services linked to these providers can also be made through the IBA website.

It is the responsibility of the cardholder to ensure that the card's security details are ready and to check that there is a sufficient balance on the card for the payment to complete.

All fees payable to us by you in relation to the Conference shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to such fees, you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements to attend the Conference. It is recommended that you check any visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. In particular, participants should inform themselves of the entry requirements (ie, visa requirements) of the event location and complete the necessary formalities in good time before the event begins. The IBA will not be liable if a visa application is denied, a visa is received too late to attend, or if a delegate is not able to travel to the Conference for any other reason.

We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your booking form and full payment of conference fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Carbon efficient travel

With IBA conferences taking place in major business centres all over the world, travel is an unavoidable reality for our delegates. The IBA encourages its members and delegates to be responsible and conscious of the impact travel has on the environment and to take measures to reduce the carbon impact of their travel.

Some suggested steps that delegates can take include:

- Travel by train instead of flying if possible.
- Book direct flights instead of connecting flights, if available, as limiting the number of stops needed will reduce your carbon footprint.
- Consider the impact of the travel class that you book – business class travel equates to 3 times the carbon footprint of economy class.

Relying on the local public transport is the more carbon friendly option, but this is not always a realistic option. Where reliance on taxis/cars is needed use electric vehicles over petrol or diesel and share vehicle usage with other delegates and colleagues.

Badges

For security reasons, name badges are required to be worn visibly at all times during the Conference and at any IBA organised social function linked to the Conference. Proof of identity is required to collect your badge and for a replacement badge to be issued. Checks will be in place and staff will challenge delegates not wearing a valid conference badge. Anyone not wearing a badge must get a replacement badge from IBA staff or will be required to leave the venue immediately. Anyone found wearing a badge that they are not entitled to wear will have the badge removed and will be required to leave the Conference.

All conference bookings are non-transferable and cannot be resold, transferred or passed on to another person, whether for commercial gain or otherwise.

Name badges can only be used by the booked attendee to access the event or social function; name badges cannot be shared or borrowed by any other person, whether registered for the event or otherwise.

Any breach of these terms will result in the booked attendee being required to leave the event/social function with immediate effect and the cancellation of their booking without reimbursement or refund of any previously paid fees.

Dietary requirements

The IBA endeavours to accommodate all special dietary requests confirmed to us before bookings close. Requests made after this time cannot be guaranteed and all dietary requests are subject to local availability (which is outside the IBA's control).

Photography and filming

Certain sessions and social functions at an IBA Event may be photographed or filmed and some of this content may be used for future IBA marketing materials, member communications, products or services. Should you have any concerns about this, or if you do not wish to be featured in any of these materials, please contact the IBA Marketing Department at ibamarketing@int-bar.org.

No participant, attending in any capacity, is authorised to record or film the conference working sessions, workshops or social function without the prior written permission of the Conferences Director.

Illness

You will not attend the Conference if you are displaying symptoms of a communicable disease. Should you develop symptoms during your attendance, you will inform a member of IBA staff by email (confs@int-bar.org) and you agree not to attend any further sessions or related events and to comply with all local and national restrictions.

You agree that, if asked by the relevant local or national authorities, the IBA has permission to pass on your personal information and contact details to those authorities should contact tracing be required.

Promotional literature

No individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during an IBA Event, unless by prior arrangement with the IBA. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the IBA Sponsorship Department at sponsorship@int-bar.org.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA hosts conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when a conference may sell out and the IBA cannot guarantee places will be available. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed, and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving booked delegate cancellations. The waiting list for the Conference will close once the waiting list has reached ten per cent of the venue capacity, as it is very unlikely a place will become available. IBA will not be liable for any expenses or costs incurred by you (including travel and accommodation costs) in relation to attendance at the Conference, including if you travel to the Conference without a confirmed place).

Harassment

Conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and their professional associates. The IBA values the participation of every delegate and member of the IBA and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all Conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, IBA staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the Conference and at all events, receptions and parties, whether officially organised by the IBA or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at the Conference are required to conform to the IBA Harassment Policy. See www.ibanet.org/iba-harassment-policy.

Cancellation by the IBA

We may at any time, with or without giving notice, in our absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the Conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, we will not be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will we return any money paid to us in connection with the Conference unless we are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under our control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

The IBA shall have no liability to you, for a refund or otherwise, where the IBA is forced to cancel or reschedule part or all of the Conference due to reasons beyond our reasonable control. However, refunds may be paid at IBA's discretion.

IBA will be entitled to change the venue and make minor changes to the timing and content of the Conference.

The IBA, its officers and staff accept no responsibility for any views expressed, presentations or materials produced by delegates or speakers at the Conference.
