The sky is the limit: the city of the future
Look up and do not look down. Major cities around the world are expected to grow significantly in coming years. London and New York currently have nine million inhabitants but are both predicated to reach 11 million by 2050; New Delhi has 21 million inhabitants but is expected to grow to 42 million in 2050.

This development calls for a new type of urban planning with an upwards focus. This will include the creation of communities in the sky, of buildings with forest roofs and connecting bridges, shared facilities and green vertical neighbourhoods.

1415 – 1500

The effect of electric mobility on infrastructure

Major global cities like Amsterdam, Madrid, Mexico City, Paris and Rome want to ban gasoline and diesel cars as of 2030 to only allow electric cars.

This will fuel the need for charging stations in private residences and public charging stations, and the development of local electric grids and electricity production.

But this will also call for other ways of transportation like Hyperloop, drones, self-driving cars and flying taxis.

How will this affect the infrastructure of the city?

The real guide to real estate disputes
Cross-border real estate transactions can result in significant litigation in multiple jurisdictions. This panel of dispute resolution experts will discuss how to best prepare for such disputes when drafting the contract, and how to best act once a dispute has risen.

Topics that will be discussed include:
- how to draft a perfect dispute resolution clause;
- which is the appropriate forum for a dispute;
- what is preferable: arbitration or litigation;
- when and how should one use alternative disputes methods;
- advantages and ways to obtain preliminary measures;
- selection of local counsel and arbitrator(s); and
- managing the dispute resolution process.

1200 – 1245
Leases in times of changing tenant demand
Tenant markets are changing. New solutions are required in the light of the ESG agenda and new demands related to the EU taxonomy and the UN 17 Sustainable Goals. Tenants have increased needs for flexible office lease holds due to the new ways of working from home/in the office. Proptech opens up for new ways of putting value into leases. And COVID-19 restrictions and new force majeure clauses have an impact on lease contract. This session addresses these topics and the panelists bring examples on sustainability terms in lease contracts; flexible lease terms; terms influenced by new technology in lease contracts, and new tenant demands in retail lease contracts. This session focuses on these issues and provides examples of relevant clauses to tackle these challenges

Work-Life Science: has the pandemic changed the way we work and the work-life balance we want forever?

Before the pandemic there was an increasing focus on the mental wellbeing of those working in the legal industry and the pressures of a modern legal career. Pandemic induced lockdowns introduced flexible working overnight, changing the demands on everyone. This panel will discuss what challenges lawyers are facing as we return to the office and what different generations are saying they want from their careers, how they want to work and the ways different law firms are seeking to help achieve a work-life balance and reduce major causes of poor mental health in the workplace.

Moderators
Véronique Lagarde Dentons, Paris; Conference Co-ordinator, IBA Real Estate Section
Charles Staveley Mills & Reeve, London; Communications Officer, IBA Real Estate Section

1415 – 1430 Closing remarks

• Conference venue meeting and catering rooms will be deep cleaned prior to IBA Conferences
• Conference venue staff and IBA staff will wear face masks when moving around the venue
• AV equipment/microphones will be disinfected or have covers changed between use by different speakers

Book with confidence
The IBA will offer a full refund if you are required to cancel your registration due to Covid related reasons; we will require written confirmation of your cancellation by the end of business on the first day of the conference.
If the IBA needs to reschedule the event, your registration will be automatically transferred to the new date and no additional fees will be charged. If this date is not convenient for a delegate, a refund of the cost of the conference place will be available on request to the IBA.
If the IBA is unable to reschedule the conference within 12 months of the original scheduled date, a full refund of the cost of the conference place will automatically be made to all delegates.
Please note that the IBA will not provide refunds for any other costs incurred including any travel costs.
If you have questions or concerns, please email confs@int-bar.org
Please note, these terms are subject to any more restrictive or different local requirements, and may be altered and amended from time to time to reflect any changes to restrictions or government requirements.

Photography and filming
Please note that no individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during the Conference, unless by prior arrangement with the IBA. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the IBA Sponsorship Department at ibamarketing@int-bar.org

Promotional literature
Please note that no individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during the Conference, unless by prior arrangement with the IBA. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the IBA Sponsorship Department at sponsorship@int-bar.org

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this ‘Information’ section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.
If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have had had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs
The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a ‘first come, first served’ basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The waiting list for a conference will close once it has reached 10 per cent of the conference venue capacity, as it is very unlikely a place will become available. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.
Cancellation of registration or social functions
If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by Wednesday 1 June, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after Wednesday 1 June will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Please note that the IBA will, however, offer a full refund if you are required to cancel your registration due to Covid related reasons; we will require written confirmation of your cancellation by the end of business on the first day of the conference.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the ‘cancellation of registration’ clause included in the ‘Information’ section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

Travel arrangements and visas
Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Hotel accommodation
A limited number of rooms have been reserved at the Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam for the nights of 15–17 June:

Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam
Oudezijds Voorburgwal 197
1012 EX Amsterdam
The Netherlands
Tel: +31 020 555 3111
Fax: +31 020 555 3222
Email: H2783@sofitel.com

The following rates is per room, per night and inclusive of breakfast, service charge and VAT. Additional charges include five per cent city tax.

Superior Queen Single occupancy: €360

Double occupancy €400 upon request, please enquire with the hotel.

Please complete the enclosed accommodation registration form to make your reservation. The hotel requires a credit card number to secure your reservation.

Cancellation and no-show policy
Cancellation may be made up until 72 hours prior to your check-in date. Please note that in the event of any cancellations or no-shows, rooms will be charged to the individual guest’s credit card given at the time of booking.

Please note that any reservation made after 1 June 2022 will be subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed at the special IBA rate.

As a limited number of rooms have been blocked at the hotel, availability cannot be guaranteed once the room block is full.

Delegates are responsible for making accommodation reservations directly with the hotel and entering into an agreement with the hotel regarding credit card guarantees, cancellation terms and conditions, and room rates (should these differ from the special IBA rate). The IBA cannot accept responsibility for hotel accommodation disputes between a delegate and the hotel.

Unauthorised accommodation agents
It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering ‘assistance’ with registration and hotel bookings. They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition.

The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

Disabled access
The hotel is wheelchair accessible. Please notify us if you require special assistance.

Continuing Professional Development / Continuing Legal Education
For Conference delegates from jurisdictions where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the IBA will provide a Certificate of Attendance for the Conference. Subject to CPD/CLE requirements, Conference delegates can use this to obtain the relevant number of hours’ accreditation. The number of CPD/CLE hours available may vary depending on the rules applied by the members’ bar association/law society on time recording criteria.

A Certificate of Attendance is available to Conference delegates on request. Please ask at the IBA conference registration desk for information on how to obtain the certificate.

IBA Harassment Policy
IBA conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and their professional associates. The IBA values the participation of every delegate and member of the IBA and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all Conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, IBA staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the Conference and at all Conference events, receptions, and parties, whether officially organised by the IBA or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at any IBA event are required to conform to the IBA Harassment Policy.

See www.ibanet.org/conferences/harassment-policy.aspx

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the Conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the Conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world’s leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients’ interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Real Estate Section Overview

While real estate assets are traditionally governed by national rules, real estate transactions have long ceased to be a purely national matter. Today, the ownership of properties is traded among investors around the globe. Increasing internationalisation of all aspects of real estate law has also changed the types of lawyers involved. Transactional specialists who often have a corporate law background have, in many cases, replaced traditional real estate lawyers. In this evolving context, the IBA Real Estate Section provides a unique and valuable forum for lawyers from different countries and legal backgrounds to address all sorts of practical and legal issues, exchange views and meet during conferences.
