Thursday 15 September

0745 – 1615 Registration

0900 – 0915 Opening remarks

0915 – 0945 Keynote address

0945 – 1115 Holding companies: their future use in acquisition structures, will they survive the changes under discussion?
The jury of public scrutiny has determined that holding companies are evil and mischievous; and, as in the inquisition, they must be burned on the stake! However, holding companies are essential for business transactions. They are required as tools for business to undertake acquisitions, implement financing vehicles, centralise regional management functions and the like. Given that said structures have also been used as mechanisms for treaty shopping and tax reduction, our panel will analyse their legitimacy prospects for survival and use in the new global tax environment.

Session Co-Chairs
Richard Giangrande Macfarlanes, London
Heather Ripley Alston & Bird, New York

Speakers
Silvia Andrés Garrigues, Barcelona
Silvio Cilia Corrieri Cilia, Birkirkara
Bruna Marrara Machado Meyer, São Paulo
Roland Meuwissen Dentons, Amsterdam

1115 – 1145 Coffee/tea break

1145 – 1315 Environmental taxes: PPT, carbon tax and ‘green’ tax credits
Governments have always used taxes and levies to influence the behaviour of the people and the economy. Unfortunately, lobbyist and misguided political interests have disrupted tax laws and their use for public interest. Global warming and the environment require that concerted efforts be implemented to tackle the challenges the globe is facing. This leads us to the question, how are taxes and levies being used to safeguard the environment and curb global warming? The panel will debate on how the current environmental challenges in politics impact the tax landscape.

Session Co-Chairs
Jisun Choi Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, London
Francesco Gucciardo Aird & Berlis, Toronto, Ontario; Vice Chair, IBA Taxes Committee

Speakers
Manuel Alcalde Carey, Santiago
Laura Duglio Chiomenti, Milan
Antti Lehtimaja Krogerus, Helsinki
Enric Moret Plumé RocaJunyent, Barcelona
1315 – 1415 Lunch

1415 – 1545 Have a laptop, will travel: mobility, digital nomads, remote working and its impact for companies

The tax and social security considerations impact the home office and travel policies that corporations implement. Besides the obvious effects in the individual taxation of the employees, companies may also be impacted in their transfer pricing policies due to the mobility of workers, key functions and intellectual property (IP). Considerations on place of effective management, permanent establishment and DEMPE (development, enhancement, maintenance, protection and exploitation) functions, among others, are in the menu. The panel will discuss how companies are facing this challenge.

Session Co-Chairs
Annabelle Bailleul-Mirabaud CMS Francis Lefebvre, Paris; Young Lawyers Programme Officer, IBA Taxes Committee
Ocka Stumm Gleiss Lutz, Frankfurt

Speakers
Mariana Díaz-Moro Gómez-Acebo & Pombo, Madrid
Walter Keiniger Marval, O’Farrell & Mairal, Buenos Aires
Patrick Schmid Bär & Karrer, Zürich
Jeroen Smits Stibbe, Amsterdam
Stefan Stellato Hannes Snellman, Helsinki

1545 – 1615 Coffee/tea break

1615 – 1745 Taxes and fintech: the use of technologies by the tax administration

Tax authorities globally have learned to levy on technology to undertake their oversight and enforcement capabilities. They are actively working to share this knowledge and infrastructure among them, training those that are less developed and shortening the learning curve of authorities throughout the world. Are taxpayers, both corporate and individual, up to speed on their own level of compliance to be able to respond to these enhanced government capabilities? Our panel will explore the best practice that corporations and individuals should undertake to put in place mechanisms to defend against the intelligence upon which governments around the world are acting on. Defensive proactive action is the only tool that taxpayers have to fend off the collaborative efforts of global enforcers.

Session Co-Chairs

1130 – 1300  Mobility of HNWI after the pandemic: Tax preferential regimes and application of tax treaties

Preferential regimes are proliferating to attract high net worth individuals (HNWI) post pandemic. While they undoubtedly offer relevant tax benefits, the application of tax treaties is still controversial, if not directly forbidden, raising potential pitfalls for the unwary. This section will address the concept of a ‘resident of a Contracting State’, for the purpose of the Double Tax Conventions, and how HNWI benefitting from these forfeited regimes may fit into it.

Please note, these terms are subject to any more restrictive or different local requirements, and may be altered and amended from time to time to reflect any changes to restrictions or government requirements.

Conference sell-outs
The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a ‘first come, first served’ basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The waiting list for a conference will close once it has reached ten per cent of the conference venue capacity, as it is very unlikely a place will become available. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.
Cancellation of registration or social functions

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 12 August, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 12 August will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Please note that the IBA will however offer a full refund if you are required to cancel your registration due to Covid related reasons; we will require written confirmation of your cancellation by the end of business on the first day of the conference.

Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Upon submission of your completed Conference registration form to the IBA you are considered ‘registered’ pending payment. Please note that the cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as your registration is received.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA Conference in accordance with the terms of the ‘cancellation of registration’ clause included in the ‘Information’ section of the relevant Conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such Conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant Conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Hotel accommodation

The IBA does not hold any hotel room blocks.

Delegates are responsible for making accommodation reservations directly with the hotel and entering into an agreement with the hotel regarding credit card guarantees, cancellation terms and conditions, and room rates. The IBA cannot accept responsibility for hotel accommodation disputes between a delegate and the hotel.

Unauthorised accommodation agents

It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering ‘assistance’ with registration and hotel bookings. They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

Disabled access

The Hotel Barcelona Center is wheelchair accessible. Please notify us if you require special assistance.

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world’s leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients’ interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Taxes Committee

The IBA’s widely respected and very active Taxes Committee offers its members access to the highest quality technical, practical and professional tax expertise to assist in understanding and finding solutions to international tax issues and concerns. It also encourages interface between international tax specialists and promotes the building of networks among tax lawyers worldwide to assist them in better serving the interests of their clients. The committee is divided informally into four practice group areas: Income Taxes, Other Taxes, Tax Litigation and Employee Benefits.

Members are encouraged to contribute to the committee newsletter which is published two to three times per year and to present papers at committee conferences and seminars. The committee also offers tax executives a forum, in its Tax Executives group, to exchange expertise and skills with their colleagues in industry on topics of special interest.
