Friday continued

0945 – 1100 Session one

The impact of third-party funding on investment arbitration

Over the past decade, the use of third-party funding (TPF) has grown and developed, raising concerns in the field of investment arbitration about the parties' equality of arms. This panel will discuss whether TPF really facilitates investors' claims and the measures so far proposed by the arbitral community to address the alleged imbalance brought to the system by the wider use of TPF.

Session Chair

Nigel Blackaby KC Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Washington, DC

Speakers

Fernando Aguilar de Carvalho Uría Menéndez, Lisbon

Gonzalo Flores International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes, Washington, DC

Nilufar Houssain Omni Bridgeway, San Francisco, California

Carmen Martinez Lopez Three Crowns, London

1100 – 1130 Break

1130 – 1245 Session two

The implications of sanctions for international arbitration

Economic sanctions have traditionally been imposed on individuals and companies across the world as a tool of political pressure and have recently gained global relevance in view of the war in Ukraine. For international arbitration, these sanctions represent a great challenge as they may pose numerous procedural pitfalls, which can even obstruct access to justice. This panel will explore the practical effects of economic sanctions on arbitral institutions, arbitrators and parties, and how to ensure the enforcement of arbitration agreements entered into by sanctioned countries.

1245 – 1415 Lunch

1415 – 1445 Keynote address: The perils and promise of transparency

Keynote Speaker

Fernando Mantilla-Serrano Latham & Watkins, Paris

1445 – 1600 Session three

Duty of disclosure: self-regulation vs statutory regulation

'The development of international arbitration in the last decade has given rise to debates regarding the extent of the arbitrators' duty of disclosure and how cultural background may affect the way national courts interpret this notion.

This panel will look at recent case law on the matter, as well as national legislative initiatives, to analyse the real need for further regulating the duty of disclosure.

Session Chair

1630 – 1745 Session four

Dealing with corruption in international arbitration

With the increasing intricacies of the cases involving corruption allegations, the solutions applied so far by arbitral tribunals with respect to the effects produced by parallel proceedings, plea bargains and standard of proof are being revisited. This panel will discuss what should be a realistic and practical approach for corruption allegations.

Session Chair

The IBA, its officers and staff accept no responsibility for any views expressed, presentations or materials produced by delegates or speakers at the Conference.

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the Conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the Conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

Continuing Professional Development/Continuing Legal Education

For Conference delegates from jurisdictions where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the IBA will provide a Certificate of Attendance for the Conference. Subject to CPD/CLE requirements, Conference delegates can use this to obtain the relevant number of hours' accreditation. The number of CPD/CLE hours available may vary depending on the rules applied by the members' bar association/law society on time recording criteria.

A Certificate of Attendance is available to Conference delegates on request. Please ask at the IBA Conference registration desk for information on how to obtain the certificate.

IBA Harassment Policy

IBA conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and their professional associates. The IBA values the participation of every delegate and member of the IBA and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all Conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, IBA staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the Conference and at all Conference events, receptions, and parties, whether officially organised by the IBA or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at any IBA event are required to conform to the IBA Harassment Policy.

List of participants

In order for your name to appear in the list of participants, your registration form must be received by 4 April at the latest.

Live delegate search

Delegates are able to use the live delegate search via the IBA website, in order to use this function delegates will need to be logged into their MyIBA. This will allow search access to up-to-date attendance lists.

Registration confirmation

Upon receipt of your payment for the Conference a confirmation email will be sent to you which contains information regarding your attendance at the Conference. You will also be able to view and download your payment information and manage your registration via your My IBA profile on the IBA website.

Photography and filming

Certain sessions and/or social functions may be photographed and/or filmed and some of this content may be used for future IBA marketing materials, member communications, products or services. Should you have any concerns about this, or do not wish to be featured in any of these materials please contact the IBA Marketing Department at ibamarketing@int-bar.org.

Payment of registration fees by bank transfer or BACS payment

Registration forms received without proof of payment will NOT be processed until proof of payment has been received.

Euro: by bank transfer to the IBA account at the National Westminster Bank, St James's & Piccadilly Branch, 208 Piccadilly, London W1A 2DG, United Kingdom.
SWIFT address NWBKGB2L, IBAN GB58NWBK60721106570631

Please ensure that a copy of the bank transfer details is attached to your registration form.

[[Use the exchange rate prevailing at the time of registration.]]

Online credit card payments: by Visa, MasterCard or American Express. No other cards are accepted.

PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR NAME AND '[CONF2322]' APPEAR ON ANY TRANSFER OR DRAFT.

No deductions or withholdings

All fees payable to us by you in accordance with the terms contained in this 'Information' section shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever.

Cancellation of registration or social functions

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 31 March fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA. We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 31 March will not be eligible for any refund of fees.

Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Upon submission of your completed Conference registration form to the IBA you are considered 'registered' pending payment.

Book with confidence

- If the IBA needs to reschedule the event, your registration will be automatically transferred to the new date and no additional fees will be charged. If this date is not convenient for a delegate, a refund of the cost of the conference place will be available on request to the IBA.
- If the IBA is unable to reschedule the conference within 12 months of the original scheduled date, a full refund of the cost of the conference place will automatically be made to all delegates.
- Please note that the IBA will not provide refunds for any costs incurred including any travel costs.

Please note, these terms are subject to any more restrictive or different local requirements and may be altered and amended from time to time to reflect any changes to restrictions or government requirements.

Promotional literature

Please note that no individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during the Conference, unless by prior arrangement with the IBA. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the IBA Sponsorship Department at sponsorship@int-bar.org.

If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any fees payable to us by you under the terms contained in this 'Information' section you shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave us with the same amount as we would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding. If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed, and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The waiting list for a conference will close once it has reached ten per cent of the conference venue capacity, as it is very unlikely a place will become available. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.

Please note that the cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as your registration is received.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA Conference in accordance with the terms of the 'cancellation of registration' clause included in the 'Information' section of the relevant Conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such Conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant Conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Disabled access

The venue is wheelchair accessible. Please notify us if you require special assistance.

Hotel accommodation

Unauthorised accommodation agents

It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering 'assistance' with registration and hotel bookings.

They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

LCIA European Users' Council Symposium in Lisbon

Saturday 15 April 2023

The LCIA is pleased to be in Lisbon for a morning symposium followed by lunch at SUD LISBOA HALL, following the IBA Annual International Arbitration Day 2023.

In the long established LCIA tradition, the symposium will be based around current issues of key interest in the field of international commercial arbitration and ADR, proposed in advance by delegates and debated from the floor, under the expert guidance of well-known Co-Chairs. The symposium will close with a fireside discussion on the Arbitration Act 1996 review conducted by the Law Commission.

Programme

9.00 - 9.30 Registration and refreshments

9.30 - 10.45 Session One: LCIA 'Tylney Hall' style discussion

In the ever popular LCIA tradition, delegates will be contacted before the symposium and invited to submit topics for discussion on current issues of key interest in the field. On the day, delegates will be encouraged to participate in a free flowing discussion of the topics submitted under the expert guidance of the Co-Chairs.

Co-Chairs: José María Pérez, Bredin Prat, France

Johanna Wirth, Hengeler Mueller, Germany, Member of the LCIA Court

10.45 - 11.15 Tea/coffee break

11.15 - 12.30 Session Two: LCIA 'Tylney Hall' style discussion

Co-Chairs: Utku Cosar, Arbitration Chambers, USA, Member of the LCIA Court

José Emilio Nunes Pinto, José Emilio Nunes Pinto Advogados, Brazil, Member of the LCIA Court

12.30 - 13.00 Fireside: The Arbitration Act 1996

Following a period of review The Law Commission of England and Wales has published a consultation paper on the Arbitration Act 1996. The aim of the review was to "enhance the experience for those who choose to arbitrate in England and Wales and maintain English law as the gold standard in international arbitrations". This session will provide an opportunity to discuss the key proposed reforms.

Discussants: George Spalton KC, 4 New Square, UK, Officer of the LCIA European Users' Council

Professor Dr Jacomijn van Haersolte-van Hof, LCIA Director General, Member of the LCIA Court and Board

13.00 - 14.30 Lunch

the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Arbitration Committee:

The IBA Arbitration Committee focuses on laws, practice and procedures relating to the arbitration of transnational disputes. Through its conferences, publications and projects, the Committee seeks to share information about international arbitration, promote its use and improve its effectiveness.

Become a member of the Committee to benefit from networking opportunities, the opportunity to read and write IBA publications and discounts on conferences and webinars. You can also get involved with the work of the Committee.
