0930 – 0945  Welcome remarks
Tahera Mandviwala  TDT Legal, Mumbai, Maharashtra; Co-Chair, IBA India Working Group
Ramesh Vaidyanathan  Advaya Legal, Mumbai, Maharashtra; Co-Chair, IBA Asia Pacific Regional Forum

0945 – 1100  Session one
Judicial backlog: speeding up your case in Indian courts
Indian Courts often decide the outcome of a dispute in the first few days through interim orders. The main dispute can take years thanks to high ‘pendency’ or case arrears in most courts. Pendency increased with the advent of Covid-19, leading to a side-effect described as the ‘pendency pandemic’. Simultaneously, new technology-based reforms and solutions emerged as India realigned itself for virtual hearings, digitised records, online filing and even the somewhat-controlled broadcast of court proceedings. The result may yet be work-in-progress.

This panel will examine the future of Indian litigation, whether a commercial case can be fast-tracked, the risk of innocent undertrials awaiting justice and the prospects of expedited dispute resolution over the next few years. The panel will also explore solutions and advocate best practices for achieving faster adjudication.

Session Chair
Amir Singh Pasrich  I L A Pasrich & Company, New Delhi, Delhi; LPD Assistant Treasurer / IBA Assistant Treasurer

0945 – 1100  Session two
A conversation with in-house counsels and law firms: what they expect from dispute lawyers
In this session we will have the much-needed conversation with law firms and general counsels – what do they need and expect from dispute lawyers today? In evaluating this relationship and the current gaps, we will identify what dispute lawyers today need to do to improve their standing and relationship with law firms and general counsels.

Session Chair
Tahera Mandviwala  TDT Legal, Mumbai, Maharashtra; Co-Chair, IBA India Working Group

1100 – 1115  Coffee/tea break

1115 – 1230  Session three
Transnational issues and enforcement challenges
There are major challenges faced in recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards internationally due to unharmonised arbitration laws and different decisions by local courts. In view of this, the panelists will discuss the following issues:
• recognition and enforcement of emergency awards, partial awards and interim awards;

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Asia Pacific Regional Forum

In addition to offering an unrivalled opportunity to establish contact among lawyers within and outside the region, and with acknowledged experts on different areas of law, specialist Forum activities provide an unparalleled opportunity to keep abreast of legal business developments in the region. Members also benefit from excellent working relations with national Bars, the Inter-Pacific Bar Association and LAWASIA.

IBA India Working Group

The India Working Group (IWG) was set up in late 2016 and is made up of 28 lawyers representing firms across India. The IWG was formed to act in an advisory capacity to the IBA officers of the Asia Pacific Regional Forum (APF), senior IBA officers and the Asia Office regarding various aspects of the IBA's activities in India and specific to Indian members. The main aims of the IWG are to engage Indian members to become more actively involved in IBA activities, to increase the number of Indian members of the IBA, and to identify and implement ways the IBA can assist lawyers in India with issues pertinent to the legal profession there.
